

A SERVICE
IN THE SACRED MEMORY OF
EDNA A. BROWN

Wednesday, January 28, 1987
1:00p.m.

Bethel A.M.E. Church
1525 Michigan Avenue
Buffalo, New York

Dr. Eugene E. McAshan, Pastor

THE OBITUARY

- EDNA A. BROWN -

Edna A. Brown was born December 4, 1902 in Macon, Mississippi. She was the first of four children born within the McDavid family. After receiving her primary education in the community in which she was born, she furthered her studies in Tuskegee Institute.

Edna united in holy matrimony to Wesley P. Brown in 1924. They became the parents of two children -- Estelle and the late Annie E. Evans. Edna migrated to Buffalo by the way of Albion, Michigan fifty-eight years ago prior to her demise.

Edna joined Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church in 1940 under the pastorate of the late Dr. D.O. Walker. She served on Stewardess Bd. #2 for years. She was a member of Jessie Clipper American League Auxiliary and a member of the Tuskegee Institute Club.

Edna A. Brown served her church and community well. She passed away on January 24, 1987 at 6:27a.m. She was residing at 610 E. Ferry St. at the time of her demise.

The survivors are: one daughter -- Estelle M. White and her husband, Harold of Morgantown, W.V.; one sister -- Mrs. Lilly M. Holloway of Memphis, Tennessee; five grandchildren -- Darryl M. White of Morgantown, W.V.; Constance A. White of Arrington, Va.; Joanne E. Williams of Buffalo; Linda E. Evans of Buffalo; John W. White of

SERVICE ORDER

PROCESSIONAL

Clergy, Pallbearers, and Family

SERVICE HYMN

The Choir and Congregation

*

INVOCATION

The Reverend Thomas A. Moore

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Psalm XXIII Rev. XXII I-V

*

SOLO: PRECIOUS LORD

Paula Y. Smith

CONDOLENCES

Stewardess Board and Others

*

OBITUARY

CHORAL SELECTION

EULOGY

Pastor Eugene E. McAshan

*

RECESSIONAL

INTERMENT

BENEDICTION

Obituary cont. from pg. 2.

San Diego, California; 3 great grandchildren -- Anthony B. Williams, Michael R. Williams, and Melinda J. Williams.

PALLBEARERS

Harry A. Anderson	Matthew R. Brooks
D. Wayne Carrier	Dwayne K. Smith
William L. Seaster	Gregory L. Franklin

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family wishes to extend sincere thanks to all for their special acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy at this time of bereavement.

INTERMENT

Ridge Lawn Cemetary

*auspices of
The Buffalo Memorial Chapel*